Collect:

Faithful Lord,
whose steadfast love never ceases
and whose mercies never come to an end:
grant us the grace to trust you
and to receive the gifts of your love,
new every morning,
in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

1st READING Amos 5.6-7, 10-15

A reading from the Prophet Amos

⁶ Seek the Lord and live, or he will break out against the house of Joseph like fire,
and it will devour Bethel, with no one to quench it.

⁷ Ah, you that turn justice to wormwood,
and bring righteousness to the ground!

¹⁰ They hate the one who reproves in the gate,
and they abhor the one who speaks the truth.

¹¹ Therefore, because you trample on the poor
and take from them levies of grain,
you have built houses of hewn stone,
but you shall not live in them;
you have planted pleasant vineyards,
but you shall not drink their wine.

¹² For I know how many are your transgressions,
and how great are your sins—
you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe,
and push aside the needy in the gate.

¹³ Therefore the prudent will keep silent in such a time;
for it is an evil time.

¹⁴ Seek good and not evil,
that you may live;
and so the Lord, the God of hosts, will be with you,
just as you have said.

¹⁵ Hate evil and love good,
and establish justice in the gate;
it may be that the Lord, the God of hosts,
will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

2nd READING

Hebrews 4.12-end

A reading from a letter to the Hebrews

12 Indeed, the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. ¹³And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account. 14 Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. ¹⁵For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. ¹⁶Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Hymn 296 Let all the world in every corner sing

GOSPEL READING: Mark 10.17-31

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord

17 As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, ‘Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?’
¹⁸Jesus said to him, ‘Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. ¹⁹You know the commandments: “You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother.”’ ²⁰He said to him, ‘Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.’²¹Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, ‘You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.’²²When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions. 23 Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, ‘How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!’²⁴And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, ‘Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!²⁵It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.’²⁶They were greatly astounded and said to one another, ‘Then who can be saved?’²⁷Jesus looked at them and said, ‘For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.’ 28 Peter began to say to him, ‘Look, we have left everything and followed you.’²⁹Jesus said, ‘Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news,³⁰ who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields, with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life.’³¹But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.’

Praise to you, O Christ

Hymn 392 O thou who camest

Post-Communion Prayer

Holy and blessed God,
you have fed us with the body and blood of your Son
and filled us with your Holy Spirit:
may we honour you,
not only with our lips
but in lives dedicated to the service of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn 81 Christ triumphant, ever reigning

Notices

Next Sunday's readings are: Isaiah 53.4-end, Hebrews 5.1-10 and Mark 10.35-45

Against Breast Cancer Thank you to those who have donated unwanted bras to be recycled for the charity Against Breast Cancer. For every tonne of bras collected, the charity receives £700 to fund research. There's a labelled box in the Link if anyone has any more to donate.

Mother's Union Coffee Morning Thanks to all those who organised and all those who came to support our coffee morning. It raised £180 and saw more visitors than expected.

Macmillan coffee morning Barnaby's are delighted to be playing their part once again to support Macmillan. On Saturday 16th October our amazing volunteers will be hosting a Macmillan Coffee morning from 10am-1pm. Please pop along for a coffee and a slice of homemade cake and donate to this worthy cause. Bring your family and your friends and be part of something truly amazing! Fancy baking a cake for Macmillan? Drop your donation in to Barnaby's between 4-5pm on Friday 15th October.

Beer & Hymns is on 27th November in The Paterson Centre. Songs and Hymns: an excuse to have a really good sing song, drink beer or wine or soft drinks and meet people. Many attendees are not part of our normal congregation. Tickets from John Sharpe.

BLOWSAX Concert is on 11th December in the Church & Pat. Centre. An eclectic mix of music played by 8 superb musicians, plus a bar. Tickets (again) from John Sharpe.
