God, our light and our salvation:
illuminate our lives,
that we may see your goodness in the land of the living,
and looking on your beauty
may be changed into the likeness of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

1st READING Isaiah 53.4-end

A reading from the Book of the prophet Isaiah

⁴ Surely he has borne our infirmities
and carried our diseases;
yet we accounted him stricken,
struck down by God, and afflicted.
⁵ But he was wounded for our transgressions,
crushed for our iniquities;
upon him was the punishment that made us whole,
and by his bruises we are healed.
⁶ All we like sheep have gone astray;
we have all turned to our own way,
and the Lord has laid on him
the iniquity of us all.
⁷ He was oppressed, and he was afflicted,
yet he did not open his mouth;
like a lamb that is led to the slaughter,
and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.
⁸ By a perversion of justice he was taken away.
Who could have imagined his future?
For he was cut off from the land of the living,
stricken for the transgression of my people.

⁹ They made his grave with the wicked
and his tomb with the rich,
although he had done no violence,
and there was no deceit in his mouth.

¹⁰ Yet it was the will of the Lord to crush him with pain.
When you make his life an offering for sin,
he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days;
through him the will of the Lord shall prosper.

¹¹ Out of his anguish he shall see light;
he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge.
The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous,
and he shall bear their iniquities.

¹² Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great,
and he shall divide the spoil with the strong;
because he poured out himself to death,
and was numbered with the transgressors;
yet he bore the sin of many,
and made intercession for the transgressors.

2nd READING

Hebrews 5.1-10

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

5 Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. ²He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; ³and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. ⁴And one does not presume to take this honour, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was.

5 So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him,
'You are my Son,
today I have begotten you';
⁶as he says also in another place,
'You are a priest for ever,
according to the order of Melchizedek.'

7 In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. ⁸Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; ⁹and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, ¹⁰having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

GOSPEL READING: Mark 10.35-45

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him and said to him, 'Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.'³⁶ And he said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?'³⁷ And they said to him, 'Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.'³⁸ But Jesus said to them, 'You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?'³⁹ They replied, 'We are able.' Then Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized;⁴⁰ but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.’⁴¹ When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John.⁴² So Jesus called them and said to them, ‘You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them.’⁴³ But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant,⁴⁴ and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all.⁴⁵ For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.’

Praise to you, O Christ

Post-Communion Prayer

God our Father,
whose Son, the light unfailing,
has come from heaven to deliver the world from the darkness of ignorance:
let these holy mysteries open the eyes of our understanding that we may know the way of life,
and walk in it without stumbling;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Dates for your diary :

The Childrens Society Coffee Morning in the Paterson Centre on Saturday 6th November

Beer & Hymns is on 27th November in The Paterson Centre. Songs and Hymns: an excuse to have a really good sing song, drink beer or wine or soft drinks and meet people. Tickets from John Sharpe.

BLOWSAX Concert is on 11th December in the Church & Paterson. Centre. An eclectic mix of music played by 8 superb musicians, plus a bar. Tickets from John Sharpe.

Finances Remember that the church doesn't run on air but requires regular and generous stewardship from its members. Andrew Wilkinson, our treasurer writes: "As we are not passing the collection basket round at present, several people have enquired about the best way to give money to the church. The very best way is to join the majority of the congregation in giving by direct debit through the Parish Giving Scheme

<https://www.parishgiving.org.uk/donors/>. Doing so can make your donation inflation-proof and allows for the easy collection of Gift Aid.

There are forms in church but you can also join by telephone. Details of how the scheme works are on the website. For a single donation, please make a bank transfer to our account (PCC of Swanmore, 30-90-85, 00135767) or use this link or the QR code to go to our givealittle page:

<https://givealittle.co/campaigns/b0411c45-0a10-466b-8a4b-dcc97e032364.>

Alternatively, on the Donations page of our website there is a PayPal button. The card reader is also usually available in church at the 10am service on Sundays. Please remember, when shopping online, to use Easy Fundraising or Smile Amazon who will pay the church a small commission on your purchase. Just search for St Barnabas Swanmore on <https://www.easyfundraising.org.uk> or <https://smile.amazon.co.uk> Do talk to Andrew (895870) if you have any questions.

The rehearsal for Remembrance Sunday will take place at 6pm on Thursday 11th November

Help needed. We are looking for more people to join the sound rota. The job involves controlling the microphones during church services and sometimes playing audio visual material on the screen. This will usually be for the 10 am service. We can give people some help to learn how to use the sound desk and other equipment. More details can be obtained from Brian Pancott.

For our daily prayers

All those who live in Cobbett Close and Dodds Lane

Please remember in your prayers: Rosita, Rachel, Bill & David and his family.

All those who have been recently bereaved especially the family and friends of Jennifer Rawlings, Marion Harrison, Rebecca Barnes, Angi Harwood, Peter Watkins, Linda Willis and Layla Oates.
