

St Barnabas Church Swanmore

Pastoral Visitor

Role Description for Volunteers

The Church of England takes the safety of everyone within the church very seriously and expects that everyone will work within its safeguarding policy entitled Promoting a Safer Church.

In particular, the Church expects anyone who becomes aware of a safeguarding risk or of actual abuse, to immediately report it.

This Role Description is binding in honour only; it is not intended to create a legally binding contract between us and it may be cancelled at any time at the discretion of either party. Neither of us intend any employment relationship to be created either now or at any time in the future.

Principles

Workers with children, young people and vulnerable adults must have a commitment to:

- Treat individuals with respect;
- Recognise and respect their abilities and potential for development;
- Promote their rights to make their own decisions and choices, unless it is unsafe;
- Ensure their welfare and safety;
- The promotion of social justice, social responsibility and respect for others; and
- Confidentiality, never passing on personal information, except to the person to whom you are responsible, unless there are safeguarding issues of concern (e.g. allegations of abuse). Safeguarding issues of concern must always be reported in accordance with our parish procedure.

Key Responsibilities

- Keep a written record of dates and times of visits.
- Follow good practice regarding lone working in accordance with the parish policy.
- Produce a short annual report in time for the APCM for the previous year detailing numbers and general observations.
- Keep receipts for any legitimate expenses.
- Commit to a supervision meeting every three months.
- Be accountable to the designated Ministry Team person.
- Have a particular focus of ministry, each of which will have its own role description.
- Abide by church guidelines regarding confidentiality, safeguarding and appropriate behaviour and use of information.
- To work with children, young people and vulnerable adults in a way that meets and develops their personal, spiritual and social needs, exercising active pastoral concern.
- To represent the needs and views of children, young people & vulnerable people to the PCC or, where appropriate, enable them to do this for themselves.
- To maintain a link with parents and carers where appropriate.
- To work in accordance with the church's policy on safeguarding.
- To undertake any other work that has been agreed and is seen to be appropriate.

Pastoral Visitors & Newcomers

- Be alert for any newcomers to church and ask them if they would like somebody to visit and whether they will give their details (keeping the Ministry Team advised.)

- Encourage all members of the congregation to be alert to newcomers and to advise you of any they meet.
- Liaise with the Sunday morning welcomers / sidespeople.
- Be alert for newcomers into the area by watching for sale boards, new-builds etc. and visit during the day with a copy of the Link, newcomers' card and anything else useful. (The Council will send a welcome pack.)
- Help to create a newcomers' card to be printed and left in church and elsewhere. Monitor supplies and check the box on a weekly basis.
- Work with Gail Norris to decide whether a separate form needs to go on the website or whether the contact us section needs tweaking.
- Arrange an annual event (tea party etc.) and invite all those who have come to church during the last year.

Accountability

When carrying out the above responsibilities you will be accountable to Designated Pastoral Visitor Lead, Vicar, and Church Wardens during vacancy and through them to the PCC.

Responsibilities of the Church

As a valued volunteer, you can expect the church:

- To provide a supportive, inclusive and positive environment that helps you to enjoy this role.
- To treat you with respect and courtesy.
- To provide you with appropriate training.

If you need any specific help or support, please speak to the person mentioned above.
